

KELLI CHRISTINA

BEST-SELLING AUTHOR |
PUBLIC SPEAKER | CEO |
ENTREPRENEUR | COACH

Kelli Christina is a best-selling author and sought-after speaker who transforms personal battles into powerful lessons on leadership, resilience, and integrity. With over 30 years in business—including 25 years as a medical recruiter and 10 years in management—she has built companies, led teams, and stood her ground in the face of corruption.

As CEO of KD-Staffing and founder of KDC-Making a Difference, LLC, Kelli has dedicated her career to shaping ethical business practices and empowering professionals to thrive. Her second book, and bestseller Riding the Executive Roller Coaster: Medical Staffing Cases, established her as a bold voice in her field. Her newest release, In Good Faith: A Whistleblower's War Against a Broken System, takes readers inside her most challenging battles, revealing both the cost and the courage of speaking truth to power.

Based in Dallas, Texas, Kelli brings honesty, passion, and conviction to every stage and interview—making her a compelling guest for podcasts, panels, and conferences alike.

MEET KELLI CHRISTINA: LEADERSHIP TESTED. INTEGRITY PROVEN.

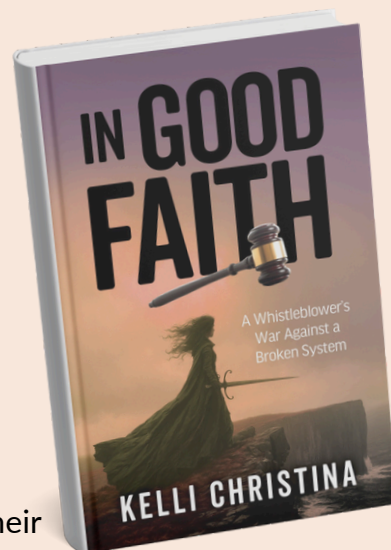

She's not just an author—she's a force.

A CEO who built a national staffing company from the ground up.

A whistleblower who stood her ground when the system broke.

A speaker who turns boardroom battles and courtroom scars into lessons that matter.

A coach who helps others find their grit and their voice.

Kelli Christina has lived the high stakes of leadership—where one decision can make or break lives, careers, and companies.

Her books, Riding the Executive Roller Coaster and In Good Faith, expose the truths most leaders won't dare to tell.

What makes her unforgettable isn't just her story—it's her delivery. Dynamic, candid, and unflinching, Kelli connects with audiences who crave honesty and inspiration in a world full of spin.

When she speaks, she doesn't just share insights. She challenges, ignites, and leaves listeners rethinking what it means to lead with courage.
